On 12-2-74, source advised he learned from AUGUST PALMISANO that he had loaned [REDACTED] enough money [REDACTED] Source stated [REDACTED] Satin Doll Lounge and that [REDACTED] PALMISANO and his friends. Source also advised [REDACTED] is paying PALMISANO back, but he does not know the amounts or how much money [REDACTED] in all.

b6
b7D

On 12-11-74, source advised that he met an individual by the name of [REDACTED] at Richies Tavern and engaged him in conversation. Source stated that apparently [REDACTED] deals in small caliber weapons and source is attempting to have [REDACTED] locate him a .44 or .38 caliber revolver. Source advised [REDACTED] is a loud mouth and he continually brags about his connections and does not seem to be bothered with the fact he had been indicted by the FBI for gambling.

Source advised AUGIE PALMISANO, [REDACTED] (an Italian American who owns an establishment on [REDACTED] the south side of Milwaukee), and source all collaborated the week before and hit several places. Source advised they started at Richies and then went to Little Caesar's, Sally's Restaurant and Monreo's on the south side as well as [redacted] New Yorker Lounge.

MI 166-364

Source feels PALMISANO [redacted] have some business deals together as upon their arrival at [redacted] FRANK and AUGIE went to a separate room and talked for approximately one half hour. Source stated that while they were at [redacted] someone called [redacted] came down to the tavern. Source was unable to learn why [redacted] was there but feels [redacted] also has some business deals going with [redacted]

b6
b7C

Source also advised [redacted] PALMISANO's [redacted] AUGIE's [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] is suspicious AUGIE is taking his [redacted] out.

Source advised on 12-10-74 that he was present at Little Caesar's Tap when [redacted] FNU [redacted] was taken by AUGIE [redacted] for five or six grand shooting craps. [redacted] wanted to pay in check but AUGIE would not accept it stating, "If you'd won, you would have been paid in cash and I want cash now." Source advised [redacted] PALMISANO became engaged in conversations which he could not determine the contents of and shortly thereafter, [redacted] left. Source is attempting to find out how [redacted] is being required to pay his debt.

Source stated that the same night, AUGIE had his [redacted] with him and for some unknown reason, jumped up and [redacted] around.

Source learned AUGIE PALMISANO is buying [redacted] business of [redacted] but will not take over his warehouse or trucks but is only interested in [redacted] customers.

Source stated that PALMISANO appears to play the hoodlum role more and seems to be a contact for every hood or ex convict that comes into the Milwaukee area. He advised Richies Tavern is the place if you have a deal to make with the "boys" so go to Richies first. He further advised that this is evidenced by the fact that PALMISANO two years ago was barely making it financially but now appears to have all kinds of money; moving in different financial circles than he ever has in the past. He advised PALMISANO has five taverns, a produce business, and seems to be expanding. He also advised PALMISANO paid seven grand to his attorney regarding the recent indictment of gambling charges by the FBI. Source advised he makes these conclusions based upon the fact he has known these people all his life being raised on the east side of Milwaukee as well as through occupational contacts.

Source advised [redacted] AUGIE PALMISANO are connected with the outfit and he feels this is true because [redacted] PALMISANO are related to FRANK BALISTRIERI. He stated that [redacted] and that PALMISANO is related somehow through marriage. He also advised [redacted] stays in the background and is used primarily as a financial advisor inasmuch as [redacted] appears to be a very good businessman and spends his money wisely.

On 1-9-75, source advised he had attended a party for AUGIE PALMISANO's wife in which all the boys were there. Source stated that [redacted] PALMISANO got drunk up and began talking in Sicilian, [redacted] mentioned that this guy that got him on the furs had been in his tavern to talk things out. Source stated from the gist of the conversation, he thought this had been recently. [redacted] advised PALMISANO that the FBI had put a recording device on the heel of this individual's shoe and [redacted] refused to talk about the incident.

PALMISANO stated that they were going to attempt to "reach" this guy the next time they can ascertain if he is in Milwaukee. Source stated he did not interpret this to mean that they were going to put a contract on him or do any bodily harm to the individual.

Source did advise he would keep in touch with PALMISANO [redacted] in the event anything like this would occur, and he would immediately advise.

MI 166-364

On 2-6-75, source stated PALMISANO paid [] for the new produce route in Madison. PALMISANO is working every day on the route training a man to take it over permanently. Source also advised AUGIE is trying to buy a place in Ozaukee County. Source will furnish details whenever he learns more regarding the business in Ozaukee County.

[redacted]
On 12-6-74, source advised that on 11-6-74, a Wednesday, a meeting had taken place between SIDNEY BRODSOON [redacted] During this meeting, BRODSOON had discussed with [redacted] the possibility of his betting with [redacted] operation. [redacted] advised BRODSOON that he would be happy to accept his wagers and would do so as soon as he had his sources "check out BRODSOON". BRODSOON advised [redacted] that if there was any checking to do, it would be he who would be checking on [redacted] and that he was highly insulted by [redacted] attitude.

[redacted] then advised BRODSOON that maybe they should both put up a sum of money to protect each other against getting "stiffed". BRODSOON then advised [redacted] that he would place wagers with him for a small amount [redacted] per game) until he was certain that [redacted] could afford the type of wagers that BRODSOON is used to placing (about [redacted] per game).

On 12-3-74, source advised there had recently been a birthday party for [redacted] at the New Yorker Lounge. In attendance were [redacted] AUGIE PALMISANO, [redacted] [redacted] PALMISANO's Broadway operation, [redacted] Milwaukee fence and high roller, as well as many other members of the downtown hoodlum community. Many females who are known to be prostitutes were also in attendance. Nobody at this party seemed to be worried about any of their present cases and PALMISANO indicated he does not believe he will go to jail for any charges against him. Source noted that [redacted] frequently contacts [redacted] at Little Caesar's Tavern and AUGIE PALMISANO at Richies on Broadway during the week and indicates he has some sort of business arrangement with these individuals.

On 12-10-74, source advised AUGIE PALMISANO is spending a lot of time at [redacted] but generally just sits at the bar, drinks and plays dice. [REDACTED] reportedly lost a large amount of money to PALMISANO at that location recently.

MI 166-364

b6
b7D

Source also noted that in his recent visits to Richies on Broadway which is operated by AUGIE PALMISANO, it is noted that AUGIE has four to five girls there who work in a call girl type operation. Source noted these women look out of place at Richies because it's such a dump.

On 12-31-74, source advised that two female companions of AUGIE PALMISANO [REDACTED] sometimes [REDACTED] Richies. [REDACTED] is hanging around with [REDACTED] and was supposedly going to [REDACTED]

On 1-19-75, source advised that AUGIE PALMISANO is completely and totally out of the bookmaking business and does not even place wagers at the present time. PALMISANO is somewhat concerned over his pending trial in federal court. Source further noted that he believes from conversations with STEVE HALMO that HALMO is using [REDACTED] as a beard to bet into [REDACTED] operation. [REDACTED] was required to put [REDACTED] prior to betting into this operation.

On 2-4-75, source advised that he had learned that [REDACTED] is attempting to set up a meeting with AUGIE PALMISANO [REDACTED] is somewhat apprehensive as he fears the Italian bookmaking element. Source does not know at this time whether or not the meeting has taken place or will take place.

On 2-8-75, source advised that there was a lot of talk among the bookmaking community about the recent sentencing of AUGIE PALMISANO. The word was that AUGIE had convinced the judge that he was a "choir boy" and there was some speculation that the fix may have been put on for AUGIE.

[REDACTED]

Source advised on 12-18-74 that he talked with [REDACTED]. She stated [REDACTED] won [REDACTED] at football. Source stated that he did not question her further nor did he know if this was his total take or what he got from juice. Source

MI 166-364

Source also advised he learned AUGIE PALMISANO had worked [redacted] betting on football. Source again did not know if this was from personal bets or if it had to do with a bookmaking operation.

Source advised he was in Richies Tavern on a Wednesday when [redacted] came in. He stated that [redacted] called [redacted] and the bartender into the back room and source observed [redacted] give [redacted] money and [redacted] would give it to AUGIE later. Source advised he has observed [redacted] do this on several occasions but most of the time it has been a white envelope he has seen passed to AUGIE [redacted] Source has no idea what the money is for but assumes [redacted] paying AUGIE for the financial aid from AUGIE regarding [redacted] clubs. Source also conjectured it could be part of AUGIE's take regarding the clubs inasmuch as everyone feels AUGIE owns these clubs anyway.

b7D

[redacted] On 1-9-75, source asked AUGIE PALMISANO about the operation. He said that PALMISANO advised him that [redacted] still owes money from football season and he would not get involved with [redacted] as PALMISANO felt [redacted] could not pay off. Source advised that PALMISANO seemed to know all about the [redacted] operation but advised he, PALMISANO, had not been connected with [redacted] during the football season.

Source also talked to STEVE HALMO about [redacted] and HALMO advised him against becoming involved in [redacted] operation. In conversation with HALMO, he learned that HALMO got a number from FRANKIE BALISTRIERI so that he would be taken care of when he got to prison. Source assumes this number has to do with some individual in Sandstone as HALMO thinks he is going to Sandstone.

Source advised that [redacted] who is AUGIE PALMISANO's [redacted] 89th and Greenfield in West Allis and is advised the place is wide open with plenty of action.

[redacted]
Source advised that [redacted] continues to associate closely with AUGIE PALMISANO and source noted that the rear room, they were apparently pleased with what they had seen.

MI 166-364

For some unknown reason, [redacted] became very perturbed about [redacted] and ordered the music to be turned off, the go-go dancers to go home, and the uninvited patrons outside the aforementioned individuals were ordered to leave the bar.

b6
b7D

Sometime after [redacted] went behind the bar, reached down in the general area of the ice bucket under the bar, and began pulling out small brown packages and handing them to AUGIE, [redacted] Source described the packages as being about 2½ to 3 inches long, 1 inch wide, and 2 inches high wrapped in brown paper. PALMISANO commented, "I've been waiting for these." Source does not know what the contents were of these packages.

Gets $500 Fine, Probation on Gaming Count

August Palmisano, who has pleaded guilty to conducting a gambling business, Thursday was fined $500 and placed on probation for two years by Federal Judge Myron L. Gordon.

The maximum penalty Palmisano faced was five years in prison and a $20,000 fine.

Palmisano, 46, of 5358 N. Kent Ave., Whitefish Bay, was arrested in connection with an FBI gambling raid on Superbow, Sunday, Jan. 13, 1974.

Atty. Charles J. Hausmann, representing Palmisano, minimized Palmisano's relationship with Steven J. Halmo, 53, of 716 S. 7th St., who also has pleaded guilty to gambling charges. Hausmann said that while Palmisano had taken some bets for Halmo, Palmisano didn't make any money.

Hausmann acknowledged that Halmo had been in Palmisano's tavern and had given him gambling information.

Hausmann said that Palmisano comes from a good family, is the father of four children, gets up daily at 4 a.m. to start operations at Palmisano Produce, works eight hours operating a truck and then helps run his tavern.

The attorney said Palmisano had been working 12 to 14 hours a day, six days a week, since he was a young man.

In December, Palmisano's wife had a mastectomy and next week she is to have a hysterectomy, Hausmann said, adding that Palmisano had become so nervous his hands shake.

Atty. Gregory Ward, a member of the US Justice Department's organized crime strike force in Chicago, said the gambling business could not be classed as minor.

Ward said that Palmisano had knowingly assisted Halmo and knew he was a bookmaker. Ward said Halmo had paid Palmisano 10% "juice" on bets he handled.

Gordon said the relationship between Palmisano and Halmo appeared to be limited and that, outside of traffic cases, Palmisano had no previous record of convictions.
